Life Isn't Easy

Genesis 37

(Slide 1)

Joseph (Slide 2) was part of a very big family. Joseph had eleven brothers (Slide 3) and a sister too. Joseph was one of the youngest and he was his dad's favourite. The others didn't like him at all. Joseph wasn't always nice to his brothers either. His dad had given him a fancy coat (Slide 4) and his brothers hated him and wouldn't be friendly to him

Joseph had dreams (Slide 5) and he used to tell his brothers. "I dreamt that we were all in the paddock/field tying up bundles of wheat. (Slide 6) My bundle stood up tall, and your bundles all bowed down to it," he said.

"Do you think we're going to bow down and serve you?" his brothers said. (Slide 7) They really hated Joseph.

"Let me tell you what else I dreamed," Joseph told them. "The sun, the moon and eleven stars all bowed down to me!" (Slide 8)

Now his father, Jacob, was angry. (Slide 9) "What's that supposed to mean? Are we all going to bow down to you? Are you going to be boss of us all?"

One day nearly all the brothers had taken the family's sheep far away but Joseph had stayed behind.

After a while Joseph's dad said, (Slide 10) "Go and find out how your brothers are, then come back and tell me."

It was a long trip but eventually Joseph saw them far away. (Slide 11) They saw him too in his fancy coat and felt annoyed. "Here comes the dreamer!" they said, (Slide 12) "it's time we fixed him, then we'll see what happens to those dreams!"

(Slide 13) Reuben heard this and tried to protect Joseph from them. "Let's not kill him," he said. "Don't murder him or even harm him. Just throw him into a dry well out here in the desert." Reuben planned to rescue Joseph later and take him back to his father.

So they grabbed Joseph, pulled off his coat and threw him down a dry well. (Slide 14)

Soon after, the brothers saw some people coming, (Slide 15) traders from far away lands. So Judah (Slide 16) said, "What will we gain if we kill our brother and hide his body? Let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not harm him. After all, he is our brother." And the others agreed.

"How would you like to buy a slave to do all your work for you?" the brothers asked the traders. The brothers pulled Joseph out of the well and he was taken far, far away (Slide 17) to the country of Egypt, sold by his own brothers.

(Slide 18) Ask: How were they going to explain that to their father?

"I know! Let's pretend a wild animal got him," they said. So they took Joseph's beautiful coat, (Slide 19) put some blood on it and took it home.

"Oh no!" said their dad (Slide 20) when he saw it. "A wild animal must have got him! Joseph is gone! Now I'll be upset forever."

That's the end of the story for today but it doesn't end there. We'll find out more next week.
